TRAINEE INFORMATION BROCHURE

The Technical Materiel Corporation's Training Center at West Nyack, New York extends to you a sincere and cordial welcome.

No effort will be spared in making your educational period a pleasant and profitable experience. You will find that our communication experts look forward to the opportunity for an exchange of information and ideas to our mutual benefit.

Every effort has been made to develop a training program that will benefit your knowledge of communication theory, operation and maintenance. Before you graduate from the training program, we will appreciate receiving from you suggestions that will lead to the formulation of even better programs for future students.

Please read all information contained in this brochure, and keep it handy, since it contains suggestions that will make your course of study more enjoyable and profitable.

TECHNICAL TRAINING

All classes commence on Monday morning and it is requested that you report no later than 8:30 to the Training Center at Snake Hill Road. For those persons reporting under military orders, the Director of Training at the Training Center is authorized to accept military orders, and will insure their endorsement.

Your instructor will review your program with you. We are sure that your individual requirements will be entirely satisfied by the training program. An outline and schedule of the courses offered is presented in TMC Field Engineering Bulletin number 19.

PROGRESS REPORT

Your instructor will discuss with you your responsibilities as a student. He will offer suggestions that he knows from experience will lead to a better and more pleasant training program. Upon graduation from the Training Program, your employer or sponsor will receive a detailed report of your grades, relative standing in your class, and your conduct as a student.
